This is Rackham. There are a limited number of metered parking spaces on Washington Street in front of the building, including an accessible space. There is an accessible entrance in front of the building, as well as in the underground parking garage. The garage is accessed from Huron Street (back of building) and is perfect for active loading and unloading only for vehicles with 90" or lower clearance. No visitor parking is permitted in the Rackham garage.

Palmer Structure is the closest public parking structure to Rackham and is marked in red. Enter off of Washtenaw Ave follow the signs to visitor parking. Rate is $1.70 per hour. Follow the lighted pedestrian path marked in blue to Rackham.